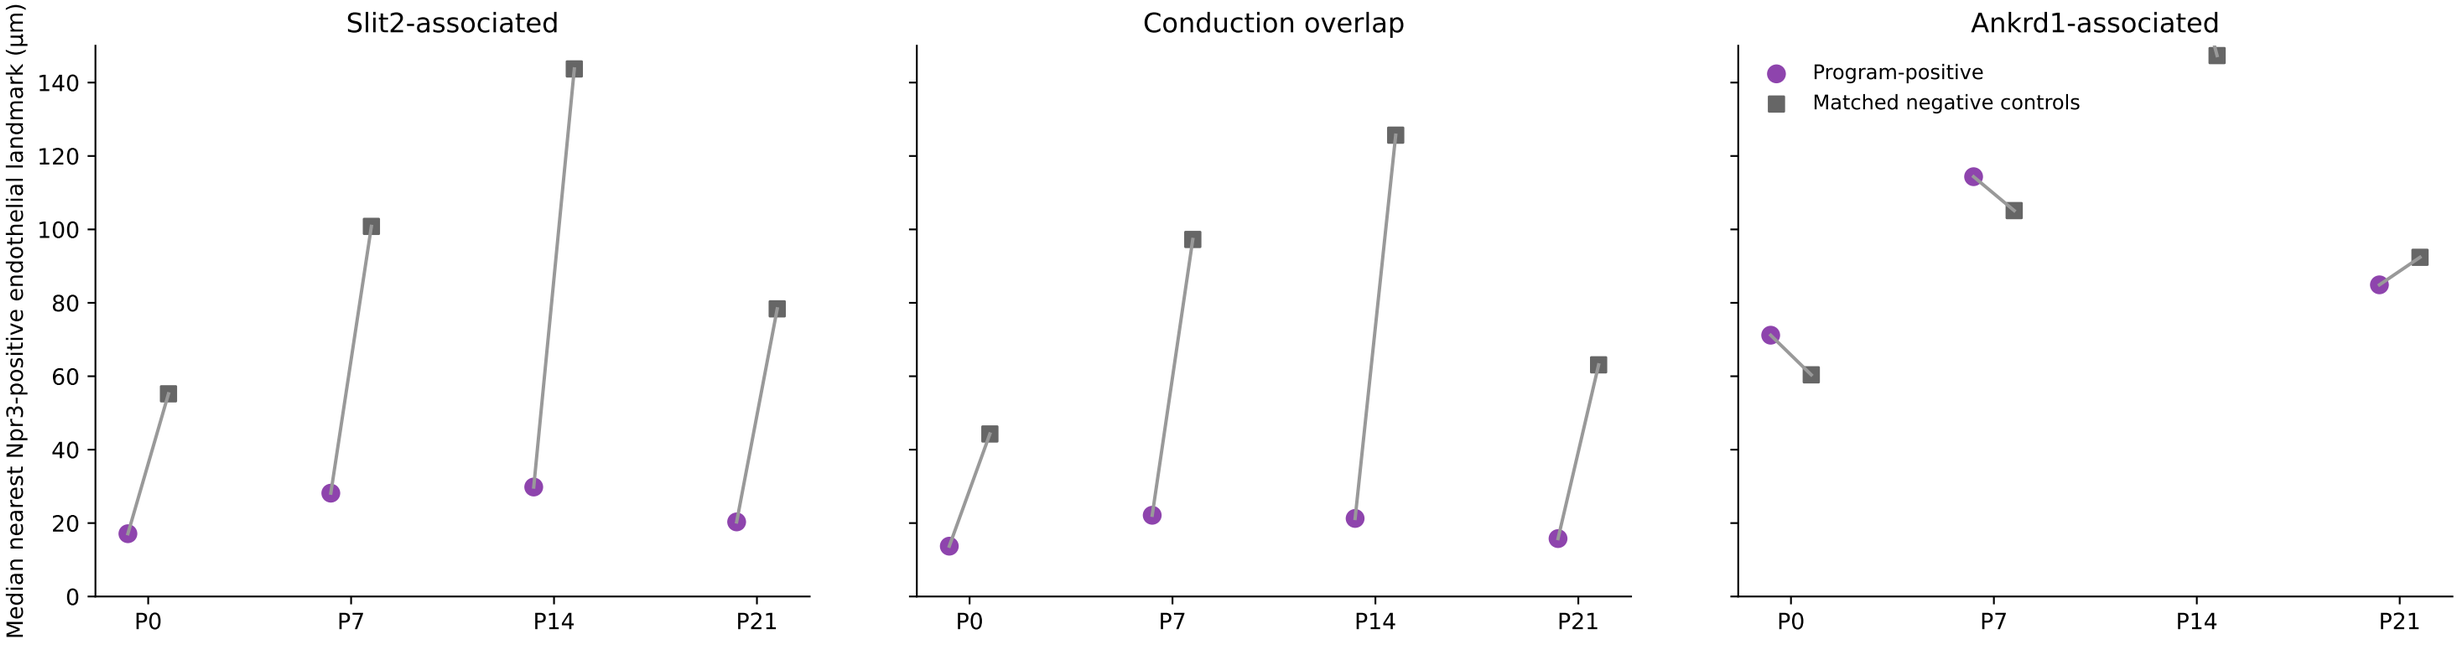
Descriptive spatial association after matching RNA depth and cell area



Within-section controls matched on log transcript count, cell area and detected genes; missing-nucleus status matched exactly.
Five nearest controls with replacement per positive segment; no spatial coordinates used for matching.
Points summarize one deposited region per age, without inferential error bars or animal-level tests. Landmarks are not traced wall depth.