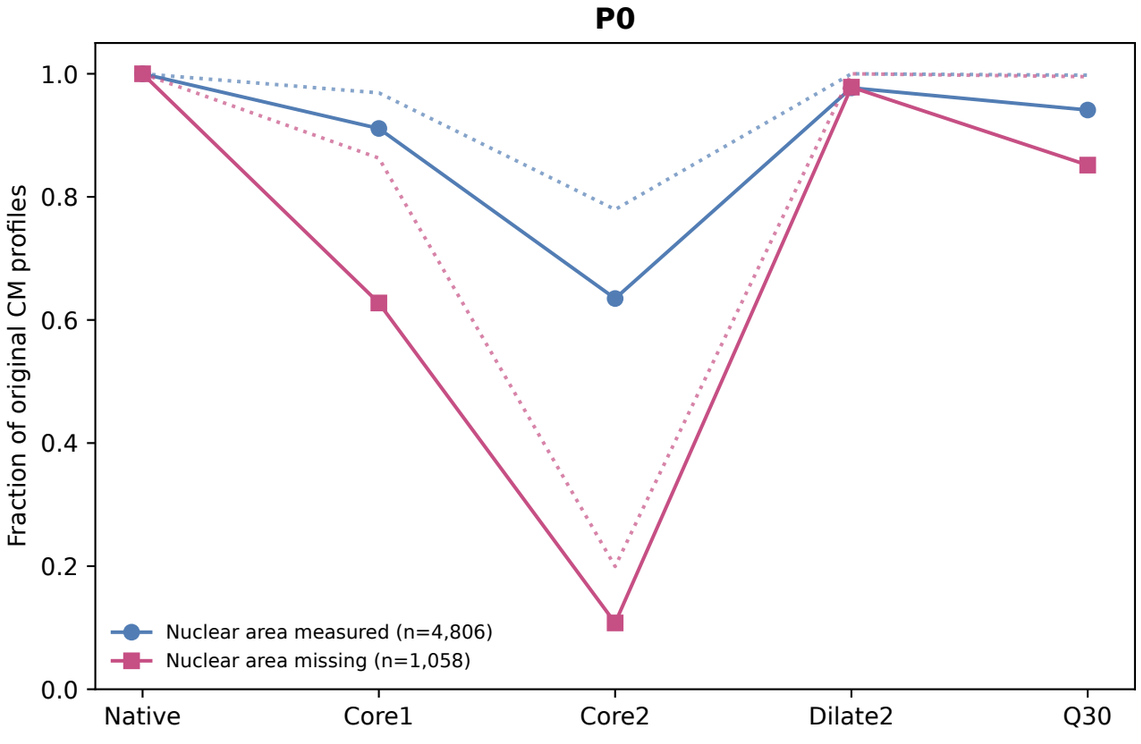
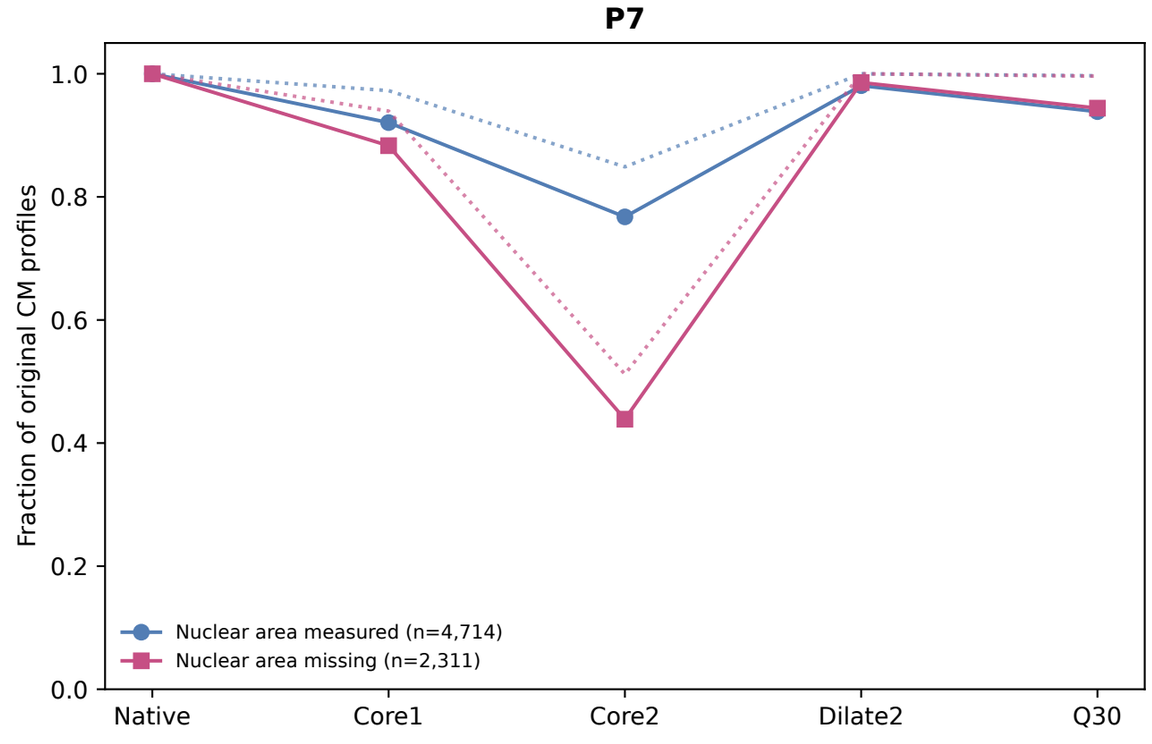
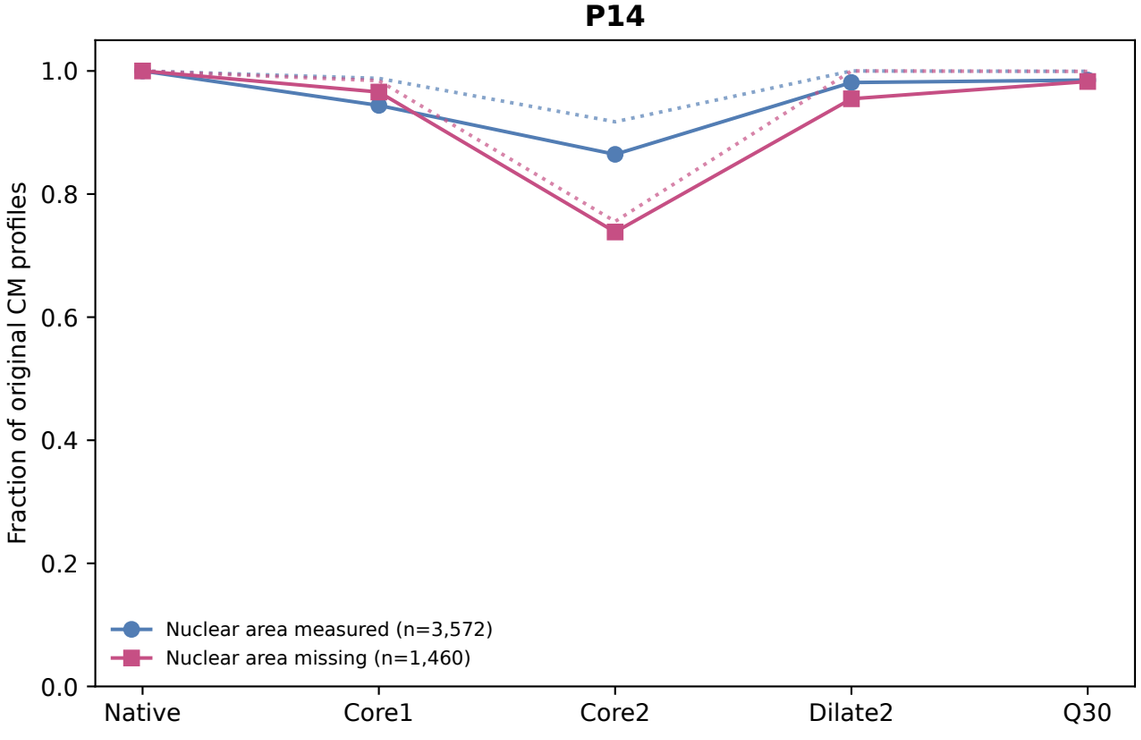
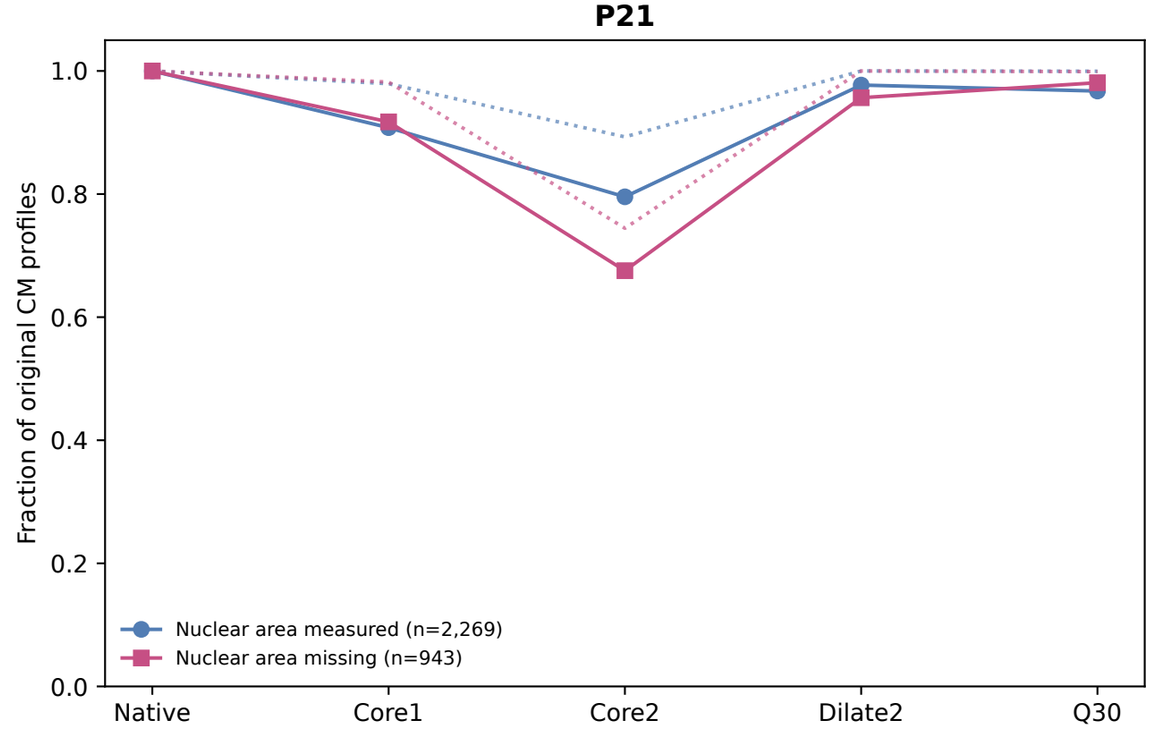
CM profiles without measured nuclear area are retained









Solid: same CM identity; dotted: sufficient expression information. No nucleus criterion enters classification or alternative seed placement.
Large RNA losses under erosion are stress tests, not recommendations to discard legitimate anucleate CM profiles.
Nuclear-area groups differ biologically and technically; these curves do not estimate a causal effect of nuclear presence.